

Happy Drama Club

The team of Happy Bubbles is delighted to announce that our new and exciting speech and acting class is now on and is called: Happy Drama Club!

If you would like to see your children explore their creativity through role-play and improvisation, improve their social and communication skills and boost their concentration, confidence and self-esteem we have the answer!

Happy Bubbles now offers weekly Greek speech and acting classes for children 6 to 12 years olds, taught by Nikos Poursanidis.

Nikos (<http://www.imdb.com/name/nm1655223/>) is a well-known film, TV and theatre actor who has worked extensively with children in performing arts both teaching and performing together. He strongly believes that drama classes help children to be creative and more social with their friends. Most importantly, he believes in the same values that distinguish athletics and drama, which are fundamental to a child's upbringing. Fun, discipline, team spirit, imagination, respect and sense of fair play! And fun again!

Included in the curriculum: speech, verbal dynamics, Greek language development, public speaking, structured improvisation, dialogue development, creative movement mimes to music, creative thinking, devising drama and acting.
